EDITORIAL

We are a christian people and our acts must ever show it. On our coins are the words, "In God We Trust." The strength of this Republic has been its faith. More and more is the realization that renewal of that faith and service is the foundation of all healing for the world, and that plans of men are useless without it.

The bases of that faith and service must be first established in the home. Love between parents and children, founded upon mutual respect, truth, honor and firmness is the principle upon which the home is built. A home where love of God and love of country are taught from infancy, for love is the power of an individual in building a better life. The parent's responsibility is the training of their little ones and the interest shown in their school and community education. The youth must be taught to accept responsibilities, to do the things they ought to do without excuse and without complaint, for the strength of our country is in the response of its people to the obligations of American Citizenship.

Numbered among football fans are: Hank Beattie, Roger Collins, Mrs. Bull, Don Chesnut, and Beth Turnbull. Mrs. Walker expresses her liking for swimming and Lar-mar Hamman, a C. H. S. alumnus prefers hunting to other sports.

In the baseball field the following people placed Ewell Blackwell high among players: Don Reed, Don Heidorn, Dink Linsom, Paul Vest, Dick Williamson, Don Rheubert, and Jim Turnbull. Lar-mar Hamman liked Gratty Hat-ton, and Kenny Huffman (J. M.) picked Frankie Baumholtz, Cincinnati's right fielder, for his favorite. Bill Fife's choice was Joe Garigola, catcher for the St. Louis Cards, and Jim Wisecup's is Ted Williams. Mickey Carzoo likes Bob Feller. "Bo" Stewart's choice is the immortal Babe Ruth. Mr. Guthrie's favorite is Ralph Kiner. Hugh Casey is tops with Janet Gordon, Eddie Miller with Melvin Tackett, and Hank Greenberg is the idol of Don Chesnut.

Heroes were also named in the field of football. Hank Beattie, and Joan Hamman like Army's Ex-All American, Glen Davis, and Mrs. Bull named Don Scott. Roger Collins favorite is Lou Groza and Beth Turnbull likes Michigan Star Halfback Bob Chappuis. Mrs. Walker selected Easther Williams, swimming star, and Grace Luttrell chose our own Coach Clyde Walker.

Youth Killed in Auto Accident On Saturday

Two traffic accidents soon after the Wilberforce State college homecoming football game resulted in one death, Greene county's tenth traffic fatality of the year, and five persons injured late Saturday afternoon.

Russell A. Pettiford, 18, negro, 116 Marshall street, Yellow Springs, was killed instantly shortly before 6 p. m. when his automobile and a gravel truck operated by John R. Channels, 34 negro, Xenia, R. R. 5, collided head-on two miles north of Wilberforce on the Wilberforce-Clifton pike.

The accident occurred on the brow of a hill, according to Deputy Sheriffs Fred Lewis and George Moore who investigated. Pettiford a former Springfield Postoffice employee, was attempting to pass another car and was traveling at a high rate of speed, the deputies said. Riding alone, he was returning from the Wilberforce game. Channels, his mother-in-law, Mrs. Sidney Harding, 67, his 9-year-old son, Clyde, and his niece, Betty Jean Harding, 3, all of Xenia, R. R. 5, passengers in the truck received minor injuries. They were taken to Miami Valley hospital, Dayton, in a Nagley ambulance, treated and released. Dr. Donald F. Kyle, Cedarville administered first aid at the scene of the accident.

The truck, owned by Wilberforce university, was demolished. Funeral services for young Pettiford were held at 2 p. m. Tuesday in the First Baptist church, Yellow Springs. Burial was in Glen Forest Cemetery.

The youth had been a special delivery mail messenger at Springfield for three years and for the last month was employed at Wright field. He served in the army nine months in World War II.

Surviving are his widow, Charn; his mother, Mrs. Wilda Pettiford, and two brothers, William Jr. and Paul, all of Yellow Springs.

Insanity Plea Entered for Gayles Trial

A plea of innocent has been changed to not guilty because of reasons of insanity by attorneys for Clifford Gayles, 34, Xenia, negro, indicted in the fatal beating of Mrs. Edna Adkins, 33, Franklin, in a Labor Day crime spree carrying from Xenia through Middletown, Cincinnati and into the South.

Judge Fred B. Cramer, who plans to preside at Gayles' first degree murder trial starting Nov. 17, said he would have the negro examined by alienists within the next few days. The change in pleas will not delay the trial, he said. A seventy-five-person jury venire has been drawn and served with subpoenas.

Gayles' companion, Ada Davidson, 17, near Wilberforce, is charged with complicity and also faces a first degree murder indictment. She will be tried Dec. 1. Her counsel has entered a formal plea of innocent in her behalf and is expected to base her defense on allegations that she had been forced to accompany Gayles on his rampage.

Mrs. Adkins, who died two weeks after the beating allegedly inflicted by Gayles, and her son, Paul, 10, also beaten, were left on a road near Middletown after their car had been commandeered. At that time, officials said the pair was fleeing from near Wil-

Five County Brotherhood To Meet Monday

The annual convention meeting of the five county Methodist Brotherhoods of the Wilmington district will meet next Monday evening at 8:00 p. m. Nov 10 in the Wilmington Methodist church, John P. Friend, Batavia, district president announced today. They are meeting in the church which was selected recently as the most typical of Methodist church in the United States and will be so featured by the Nov. 3. Life Magazine.

The convention speaker is to be Dr. Gaston P. Foote pastor of Grace Methodist church of Dayton and extensive world traveler. Dr. Foote attended the world conference of Christian youth in Oslo, Norway, and spoke extensively in Belgium and France this past summer. He traveled under the supervision of the British Council of Churches of England and Scotland. He was in Europe in 1926, '30 '37, '46. He was in the Orient in 1936. While a delegate to the regional missionary conference at Leopold Villa in the Belgium Congo in 1946 he also attended the Paris peace conference and traveled in the Ruhr in Germany. He has authored three books, 'Keys to Conquest', 'Just Plain Bread' and 'Lamps without Oil'. He is a native of Duster Texas, which has been blown away actually by dust storms.

The music is to be provided by the Brown's Ferry Four, gospel singers of WLW.

About 1,000 are expected to attend it was indicated. Dr. George B. Parkin is the superintendent of the Wilmington Methodist district which has a membership of over 23,000 adherents.

The Methodist men in the 54 pastoral charges are now busy organizing caravans to provide transportation to the annual event.

Dr. Savage Named To Hygiene Council

Dr. Gordon E. Savage, Greene county health commissioner, has been elected a board member of the mental hygiene council formed this week at a session of the Wilberforce where Gayles had fatally wounded Mrs. Ollie Davidson Guy 22, of Cleveland, a sister of Ada, earlier the same day. A first degree murder indictment against Gayles is in the hands of Prosecutor Marcus Shoup. FBI agents nabbed the Xenia duo in New Orleans a month later.

Mental Hygiene Institute of the western Ohio region which met in Dayton.

Realizing the need for a concerted attack on the problem of mental hygiene, the council was organized to carry out the program in the twenty counties which comprise the western Ohio area.

The officers and board members elected will serve until such time as a constitution and by-laws can be formulated and a formal election held.

State Director Of Agriculture At F B Banquet

Frank Farnsworth, Columbus, state director of agriculture, was among the guests at the annual banquet of the Greene County Farm Bureau in the field house, Xenia, Wednesday evening.

Other guests included Albert L. Daniels, Greenfield, state senator from the fifth-sixth district embracing Greene county; Lowell Fess, Yellow Springs, state representative, and Robert Peele, Sabina, trustee of the Ohio Farm Bureau.

Speakers were Herbert E. Evans, Columbus, personnel director of the state Farm-Bureau, and O. R. Stanfield, Westerville, legislation and public affairs director of the state organization.

Arthur B. Evans, Ferndale Farm, near Cedarville, was toastmaster.

The music department given records. A much-needed gift of classical and semi-classical records has been received by Cedarville's music department for use in their appreciation courses.

Albums of Bach, Brahms, Beethoven and Mozart are included in the donation made by Robert Dean, Cedarville, an alumnus. Besides 10 complete albums, Mr. Dean gave 73 records and a cabinet.

Another urgent need of the music department is for more pianos, according to Mrs. Creswell, department director. Anyone wishing to give a good, used piano is asked to write her or the college.

Cedarville College Has Top Perc'tage Future Teachers

A state education department survey showed that one out of every eight students in Ohio colleges and universities plans to be a school teacher.

More than one-fourth of the students are prospective teachers 2,613—are among Ohio State university's approximately 25,000 students. Percentage-wise, however Cedarville college with 111 out of an enrollment of 163 heads the list.

This increase in the number of prospective teachers should not be considered a solution to the state's teaching shortage, Dr. Clyde Hissong, state superintendent of public instruction, said.

"But it certainly indicates an excellent trend in the right direction," he added.

The survey was based on reports from registrars of 40 out of the state's 54 colleges and universities. The registrars reported a total enrollment of 81,631 students and said 10,107 of these indicated they wanted to be school marm or masters.

Contrasting with the more than 10,000 prospective teachers in 40 schools was the fact that the department issued only 1,903 teachers' certificates last year.

Hissong said he expected the number of teaching hopefuls among this year's students to increase next year "when many of the freshmen without any ideas of what they want to do now will switch to the college of education as sophomores."

He said he believed even more of the future freshmen in state institutions of higher learning would study to become teachers "because of inducements being offered in the way of higher salaries and because of anticipated competition for jobs in their

The Editor . . . Edits

The largest enrollment in history. Several new buildings. A larger teaching staff. An outlook for financial support greater than at any time in the past. An enthusiastic community. Prospects for a winning football team. Things are indeed looking up at Cedarville College.

It's not the first time in the memory of the oldest inhabitant of Cedarville that September played a prank with the thermometer.

Life-long residents of Cedarville say they never saw things looking nicer for fall than this year. It looks awfully good to us.

Ten persons were reported missing in Cincinnati the day after the double header with Brooklyn. The Reds lost both games. At least ten men were afraid to go home.

The proposal for families to cut down on food voluntarily is going to be mighty hard for those with 12-year old boys, and some of us with 11-year-old girls.
